

Proclamation

by Governor Earl Ray Tomblin

Whereas, volunteerism strengthens and enriches our communities; and

Whereas, volunteering increases the self-confidence and physical wellbeing of volunteers; and

Whereas, community and faith-based organizations, civic and charitable groups, and government departments and agencies are encouraged to organize local projects; and

Whereas, West Virginians are encouraged to offer their time and talents within their communities and make an ongoing commitment to service throughout the year; and

Whereas, this day provides an opportunity to experience immense personal growth while preserving our state's longstanding tradition of neighbor helping neighbor; and

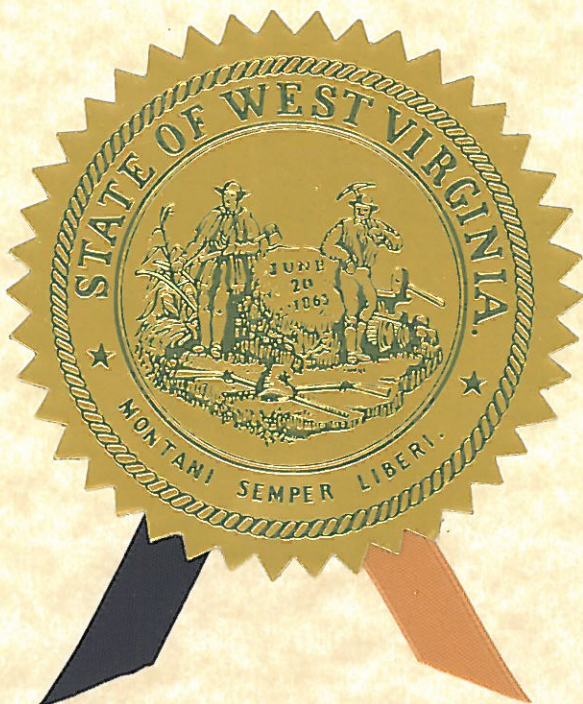

Whereas, the residents of West Virginia will join with the residents of Virginia, Maryland and Washington, DC to participate in the regional Day to Serve.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Earl Ray Tomblin, Governor of the State of West Virginia, do hereby encourage all West Virginians to volunteer at least one day during September 11-October 10, 2015 in a:

Day to Serve

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Third day of June, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Fifteen, and in the One Hundred Fifty-Second year of the State.
